January 2024 Kid Scoop News Scavenger Hunt

1. What is the largest parrot?

2. True or False? Americans have honored the memory of Dr. King by taking Martin Luther King Day as a “day on” instead of a “day off.”

3. What can you use to quickly and easily get to places in the newspaper you want to go?

4. Fill in the blank: At a birthday party, ask those invited to bring their favorite new or used ____________________________.

5. Why do parrots have two toes that point forward and two toes that point backward?

6. What must divers in Port Royal, Jamaica, watch out for?

7. What carries blood from the heart to your body, to deliver oxygen?

8. What was at the heart of Martin Luther King’s philosophy?

9. King said “Everybody can be great because everybody can ______________________.”

10. What can you read to a child younger than you?
11. To be of service, what can you pick up at a local park?
_____________________________________________________________________________

12. Long ago, what was full of treasures?
_____________________________________________________________________________

13. Fill in the blank: On a party invitation, write you “want their presence, not their
_____________________________________________________________________________!"

14. What do headlines of a newspaper tell in a news story?
_____________________________________________________________________________

15. Where does the Blue Hyacinth macaw live?
_____________________________________________________________________________

16. How many different kinds of parrots are there?
_____________________________________________________________________________

17. Fill in the blank: Never put ___________________________ or objects into outlets.
_____________________________________________________________________________

18. What muscle pumps blood to all parts of your body?
_____________________________________________________________________________

19. What was a Spanish treasure ship called?
_____________________________________________________________________________

20. Where do you find a place you can call to be of service to your community?
_____________________________________________________________________________